

JEFF FOXWORTHY

For One Night
And One Night Only!

The legend who helped define a generation of stand-up is coming to the Ritz!

Jeff Foxworthy is the best selling and one of the most beloved comedians of all time—a household name whose humor has sold out arenas, topped bestseller lists, sold more than 13 million albums, and become part of pop culture history.

From the moment he steps on stage, Foxworthy has a rare ability to make everyone feel like they're in on the joke—because his comedy comes straight from real life, family stories, and the hilarious truths we all recognize. And maybe because there's a little bit of redneck in all of us.
